It will include time for prayer, silence, faith-sharing, and fun, as well as conversations about Dominican life and the life of a Sister. Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Feast Day Sept. 29

These archangels, messengers sent by

God, are the only ones named in the Bible.

In the Book of Daniel, Michael is called "the great prince"; in the Letter of Jude, he argues with the devil over Moses' body; and in the Book of Revelation, he leads the battle against Satan. He is patron of the sick, radiologists and mariners.

Gabriel explains Daniel's visions to him in the Book of Daniel, and in the Gospel of Luke announces to Zechariah and Mary the births of their respective sons. He is the patron of messengers and telecommunications and postal workers.

Raphael guides Tobiah in the Book of Tobit; he is patron of the blind, physicians and travelers. The church created their joint feast after the Second Vatican Council.

A Note on the Coming Election... Tuesday, Nov. 3 is a critical election for our country. Catholics are called to consider a wide range of issues important to the common good before voting, weighing each according to its moral importance. Prayerfully research candidates, gathering the facts for each. To learn more about Catholic teaching regarding elections, more about the state ballot proposals and resources for Faithful Citizenship, visit dioceseof-gaylord.org and click on the "Election" banner on the home page. Reflection: Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves... Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. Maybe we see how others look and think we are superior to them. Or, maybe we barely acknowledge or talk to others because of our shyness or timidity.

Any time our focus is on ourselves and how we feel, and it is not on the other person and how they feel... that is self-centered, even selfish.

If we believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people God has put in our lives can be a gift to us in some way. Pray for the people in your life and pray that you will learn to be more concerned with others than for yourself.

He Who laughs, Lasts

A businessman ordered flowers to be sent to the opening of his friend's new branch office. When the businessman got there, he was shocked to see the flowers with the inscription. "Rest In Peace." He was so angry that he stopped at the florist to complain. "It could be worse," the florist said, "Just think...today someone was buried beneath a floral arrangement with the inscription. 'Congratulations on Your New Location!'"

The Harvest

Harvest time was very important to the Israelites. They had three harvests each year: barley in spring; wheat in summer; fruits in autumn.
