Who Knew Eating Pancakes is Profitable! 😊
Once per month, our local K of C guys host a delightful breakfast after the Sunday Mass—all by donation. These proceeds are split 50/50 with half going to our Food Pantry. A check for $1,500.00 was given to us this week! Thank you to all who make this happen.

This weekend, we took up a collection in honor of World Mission Sunday—thank you to those who donated! You may still help by dropping an envelope in the collection basket next weekend marked accordingly. Checks payable to St. Mary Parish.
Thank you!

Shrine Corner The Gift Store in Review....

We have $13,552.66 in our restoration account.

As Fall arrives, so comes cooler temperatures and trees bursting with color. It also has the tours and visitors to the Shrine come to a close for the winter months.

It has been another great year for the Gift Store as people come in to take a look around or want to purchase a certain item. Visitors are always greeted by one of our very diligent and friendly volunteers.

Volunteers for this year were:

- 1) Tena Troyer
- 2) Michele Horger
- 3) Annette Graham
- 4) Delores McArdle
- 5) Kris Babcock
- 6) Marcia Carr
- 7) Karen Thompson
- 8) Suzanne Petre and
- 9) Carol Dzienis.

I also depend on Maryanne Ladensack and Richard Troyer with ordering and moving supplies.

If you have not stopped into the Gift Store in a while, please do so. There are some new items such as Shrine Christmas cards, Nativity stickers and rosaries handmade by parishioners.

May God bless all of you and keep you safe.

Thank you.
Cathy Brown-Kuba, Gift Store Director
