Shrine Corner

June was an extremely busy month at the Shrine. Tours, visitors, outdoor Masses, fundraisers and construction. All this activity generated enough money to match the pledge donation and our CSA campaign is going well.

How does this happen? Volunteers and a great Parish Family— both in and out— (thank you, visitors) of the immediate Parish Family.

So when July 4th occurred, most of us took time off. I had my great-grandchild up here and spent a lot of time with her. I did not spend much time at the Shrine. That generated me to wonder about a group of volunteers that continued to work during the holiday weekend and did not take the time off. These volunteers work the gift shop. Trust me, they are appreciated and Thank You for the sacrifice. Bringing people to God is the greatest gift to God we can give.

The Shrine has become a very complex operation to make everything to work so smoothly. Volunteers are an integral part of the growth of the Shrine. Trust me, the Shrine has grown and the amount of volunteers has increased tremendously. Here again, the Parish Family rises to the occasion. I would like to say that everything runs smoothly, but sometimes there are glitches, but in the end it all works.

Monte has done a great job of taking the bull by the horns and now has a feel for how the operation of the Shrine works and how much time and effort goes into the process. We have a lot of new parishioners and they are volunteering, as many of us have reached the golden age (for doctors).

I remember when some of the older parishioners were leaving for one reason or another, there was a concern that we would not be able to continue at the same pace. Then we started to get newer people moving into the area and signing up on the Church roster. Funny how God works. Fr. San tells me all the time to trust in God and everything will work out. I am seeing that in action now.

It appears that construction soon will be over as the ponds are waiting for the spray to finalize the water-proofing.

God Bless, Jim L.
