Events & Opportunities

Catherine of Siena (25 March 1347 – 29 April 1380), a lay member of the Dominican Order, was a mystic, activist, and author who had a great influence on Italian literature and the Catholic Church. Canonized in 1461, she is also a Doctor of the Church.

She was born and raised in Siena, and at an early age wanted to devote herself to God, against the will of her parents. She joined the "mantellate," a group of pious women, primarily widows, informally devoted to Dominican spirituality. Her influence with Pope Gregory XI played a role in his decision to leave Avignon for Rome. She was then sent by him to negotiate peace with Florence.

The Great Schism of the West led Catherine of Siena to go to Rome with the pope. She sent numerous letters to princes and cardinals to promote obedience to Pope Urban VI and defend what she calls the "vessel of the Church."

She died on April 29, 1380, exhausted by her rigorous fasting. She was canonized in 1461, declared patron saint of Rome in 1866, and of Italy in 1939. She was the first woman (along with Teresa of Ávila) to be declared a "doctor of the Church," on 4 October 1970 by Pope Paul VI. She was also proclaimed patron saint of Europe in 1999 by Pope John Paul II.

Catherine of Siena is one of the outstanding figures of medieval Catholicism. She was behind the return of the Pope from Avignon to Rome, and then carried out many missions entrusted by the pope, something quite rare for a woman in the Middle Ages. Her Dialogue, hundreds of letters, and dozens of prayers, also give her a prominent place in the history of Italian literature.

My 4 year old niece was getting ready to graduate from pre-school. Her mother said to her "Do you know what happens after you graduate?" (meaning the party afterwards) My niece responded, "I gotta get a job, right Mom?"

Shrine Corner

I am sorry for missing a 'Shrine Corner' article last week, but I had to go downstate for several days. The Shrine Restoration total is $ 42,094.41. The Legacy Pavers are all ordered and should be here before Memorial Day. The Jug will be counted on May 1 and the end of every month after that.

In January a gentleman came up to investigate the Shrine and write an article for a magazine. Richard had a visitor last week who showed him the article so I called the author. He stated he is sending a copy of the entire magazine to Father San and me. And last Sunday Mass Karen Thompson had obtained a copy of the article from a friend and gave it to me.

The article on the Shrine is in the Sacred Places section and the heading is 'Come with an Open Heart'. The name of the magazine is "Unleash the Gospel" and it is one part of the Evangelical Program put on by the Archdiocese of Detroit. Big color picture of the Shrine along with his thoughts on the tour, an interview with Father San and people from the Chaldean Community who visit the Shrine. Really nice article and very complimentary to the Shrine and our Church family. The article is too big to copy and place in the bulletin, so if you want a copy call me at home and I will get you one. You might try the webpage www.unleashthegospel.org

The gift shop has a facelift and is now ready to go. The grottos are all clean, candles and booklets have been put in place. The Shrine's opening is May 1. Cathy K. states she still needs volunteers for every other Thursday and every Monday. If you can help call Cathy 860-682-3293. God Bless, Jim L.
