Won't You Be My Neighbor?

As an ordained minister, (Mister) Fred Rogers harnessed the power of television to tell children they were loved—and to show them how to love others. In You Are Special, he wrote, "When we love a person, we accept him or her exactly as is: the lovely with the unlovely, the strong along with the fearful, the true mixed in with the façade. We should also accept ourselves that way."

In a review of the documentary Won't You Be My Neighbor? a writer notes: "Mister Rogers' real secret was that the call to love your neighbor as yourself isn't a slogan to hang in your kitchen with flowers around it—it's a decision you make every moment. If you don't act on it, then you're just another person with a kitchen slogan."

Some of the Best

Matthew was a tax collector, hated by most,
Yet he was chose as a disciple by the Lord of Host.

Zacchaeus cheated many in his day,
But Jesus dined with him when He passed his way.

Women were on a level far below man,
Yet inside a woman His life on earth began.

And Samaritans were despised by the Jews,
But to a woman Samaritan Jesus gave the Good News.

Cheaters, adulteresses, sinful and unclean,
These were the people with whom Jesus was seen.

Saul persecuted Christians until that day,
Jesus blocked his path along the way.

He touched his heart and Paul came to be,
A wonderful example for you and for me.

David was a murderer yet look how he was blessed,
God loved him far more than most of the rest.

Look at the examples shown above,
No earthly sin can hinder His love.

For He looks in that place where no man can go,
Where the depth of his love begins to flow.

So when we see someone who is a sinner by far,
Remember this list and where they now are.

And before we try to judge the rest,
Look at those God chose....as some of the best.
